The Schuylkill River Heritage Center is celebrating Phoenixville's Legacy of inclusiveness and diversity. We have installed a large display of religious places in the community that illustrate this wonderful history. This display also honors Debbie Mitchell – the heroine who was an amazing African-American community leader, and who is featured on The Phoenixville Mural!

We also invite everyone to visit the Heritage Center in person to fully appreciate this unique display and learn the history of these religious places. We are open every Friday, Saturday and Sunday from 11:am to 3:00 PM. Although masks are required, we can now have a larger number of in-person visitors.
